Maybe as a family you don't have the time, space or money for all the costs involved in owning a real horse or pony but your children have always wanted to compete in a real event. Then this is the event for them. All you will require is a polo shirt, a pre-used bike or riding helmet, 3/4 or long length leggings and suitable footwear (runners accepted). And finally your trusty hobby horse or pony. A demonstration training session will be held at the showgrounds prior to show day and remember its about having fun and having a go. A limited number of hobby horses are available for hire on the day.

EVENTS begin at 11AM
